

NEA Initial Marking

Marked by individual teacher to assessment criteria

Cohort internal standardisation to ensure subject staff all assess work in the same way.

Departments will note who has checked which piece and retain a note of any decisions made that affect cohort marking

NEA mark only issued to student

Accept mark awarded by centre.
Note the examination boards moderate centre marks to ensure national consistency. At this stage the mark may be altered.

Decide to ask about a review of the mark.
Issue candidate with copy only of original submission, or allow supervised access to original piece.

Issue candidate with markscheme/ assessment criteria applied by the centre including any standardisation decisions, alongside a copy of their marksheet.

Told of deadline for written request for a formal review, given form.

Request a review

Submit the proforma explaining on what grounds they wish to request a review. To include where they specifically believe the issue is against the markscheme applied.

Review is of the mark in terms of the Centre's overall application of its standard of marking.

Submit proforma FAO Mrs Kendall and pay the review of marking fee £25 per piece.

- *Academic judgement usually relates to prose responses, where an element of professional judgement is required for a variety of potential responses. Personal preference may cause a one mark deviation which is acceptable.
